Dated:

To

Dy. Registrar Nodal Officer (PGMS)
O/o the RCS, Parliament Street,
Old Court Building, New Delhi-110001.

Ref. CMPGMS ID No. 2015-35575 dated 27.06.2015.

Sub: Complaint against Present Managing Committee, for issuance of false, frivolous and vexatious, demand notices with ulterior motive and malafide intent to debar the undersigned members from contesting the elections and casting the vote in the upcoming elections.

Sir,

With reference to your office letter No. PA/DRCS-II/2015/423 dated 30.06.2015 on the above said subject, whereby a grievances application filed by Mr. Jagesh Saxena & other members of Antriksha CGHS Ltd. have been forwarded to this office. Mr. Jagesh Saxena & other members have alleged in their complaint that MC has issued false frivolous and vexatious demand notice with ulterior motive and malafide intent to debar, the complaints for contesting election & casting the role in upcoming election. The matter was examined by this office and found that the dispute is between MC of society and members which can be redressed by recourse of section 70 of DCS Act, 2003.

Therefore, the complaints are advised to follow the legal procedure laid under section 70 of DCS Act, 2003.

Yours faithfully,

(PAWAN KUMAR)
